

“Climbing Your Family Tree: African-American Genealogy in a Nutshell”

a workshop celebrating the 5th anniversary of

Middle Peninsula African-American Genealogical and Historical Society

Saturday, October 10, 2009 1:00 - 3:00 p.m.

Angel Visit Baptist Church
29566 Tidewater Trail
Dunnsville, Virginia

workshop topics include
An Overview of African-American Genealogy
Research in the County/City Courthouse
Genealogy in the Computer Age
What the Family History Center Offers

Final opportunity to submit programs for the Middle Peninsula/Northern Neck Funeral Programs Project

Family tree and photograph displays may be viewed

The workshop is free and open to the public - Refreshments will be served

Middle Peninsula African-American Genealogical and Historical Society was formed in September of 2004. Its mission is to create and provide opportunities to encourage and enable African Americans to research, document, and publish their family histories and genealogies.

For further information, call 804-758-5163